President's Message: Susan Fujii and Annette DeJulio

Dear Friends,

We are most happy to greet you this October. This meeting is a special one in that we are privileged to have a representative from the League of Women Voters as our speaker. The executive committee is continuing to work on future meeting activities with your support. Please make sure that your name is on a committee; we need you. We greatly appreciate the efforts of working teachers and the members of our chapter who continually support all of us.

Our finances are strong and will allow us to increase scholarship amounts and donations. If you have additional ideas, let us know.

One of our goals is to expand our membership by actively seeking new educators to further enhance our chapter.

We are looking forward to seeing and visiting with you on October 25 at 5:30 at the China Bistro AKA the Chef's Experience. The speaker will begin her program at 5:30 promptly.

Susan Fujii and Annette DeJulio

Membership Committee's 3 R's.

Virginia Williamson spoke about the Membership Committee and how this Committee will work to keep our Chapter strong. There are three things that our Chapter does that Virginia feels are most important: 1) supporting education and educators, 2) reaching out to the community at large and forming partnerships, and 3) providing enrichment for our members. With this in mind, the Membership Committee will have a three-fold focus – Recruit, Retain and Reinstate – to bring in new members, provide existing members enrichment and inviting past members to come back. It was noted by Donna Goldenstein that when our Chapter is recruiting, we should think about past scholarship awardees. She also noted that two Hayward teachers are finalists for the Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science; Mia Buljan for Math and Nancy Wright for Science.

Linda Henika spoke about the Scholarship Committee. They will bring recommendations to the next meeting. She also asked the group to consider another scholarship and/or consider increasing the amount of one scholarship.

Jennifer Gonsalves asks for a description of our organization that can be sent to prospective members. The Scholarship Committee has a description and is a printed brochure that has useful information.

Virginia Williamson advised the group that there is a fund for women teachers who are not current members of DKG. The Penne Ferrell Fund Literacy Award provides $200 for building classroom libraries.

Jennifer Gonsalves spoke about the upcoming HUSD School Board election. There are 3 candidates being supported by CLASS (Civic Leaders Advocating School Success). There is a candidate's forum on October 5th. Jennifer encouraged members to become educated in regards to the election and to get out and vote.

Date & Location for Holiday Gathering. Co-President, Annette DeJulio asked for a volunteer to host the Holiday Meeting. It was noted by Elisabeth Geiger that it was too early to consider and suggested this item be carried forward.

Committees. Members were encouraged to choose a committee on which to serve. The job of running our organization depends on the participation of each member to ensure our success.

Chi State Convention 2016. Co-President, Annette DeJulio, shared her experiences in attending this convention along with Susan Fujii. Annette felt empowered and learned that we have a voice as women and educators.

Legislative News by Nancy Wales

November 8 is Election Day. Don't forget to vote!

After doing several days of weight lifting and getting new eyeglasses, I tackled the voter information tome. Lots of stuff in there! I decided that we retirees have better things to do with our time than strain our backs trying to hold and read that document. There are seventeen propositions on the ballot. After some searching I found a condensed version and want to share it with all of you. The author is Damian Carroll. He summarized the ballot propositions in haiku. If you are not a fan of haiku, check out Balletopedia. This November 8th Seventeen propositions Are on the ballot:

Of bonds for school buildings

Book Notes

By Marilyn Baker-Madsen

Favorite Authors: I am always thrilled when a favorite author releases another book. I was not disappointed by the twelfth book in the Walt Longmire Mystery Series by Craig Johnson. I have had the good fortune to read the entire series, many books already published when I began reading and the following books as they were released as Advanced Readers to our Book Shop. I like everything about these books - - the indelible characters, the mesmerizing scenery and the absorbing mysteries. Walt Longmire, Sheriff of Absaroka County in Wyoming, is a gun toting, crime fighting wonder, and a prolific reader who often quotes great literature and the Bible. Walt and his longtime friend and frequent crime solver, Henry Standing Bear, his irreverent Under Sheriff, Victoria Moretti, and an extended cast of wonderfully crafted characters at work in the Wyoming landscape that is deftly and evocatively described, pull you into their daily lives and the challenges they face in their line of work. An Obvious Fact joins the other compelling mysteries by a great storyteller whose writing is laced with just the right amounts of suspense and humor: The Cold Dish, Death Without Company, Kindness Goes Unpunished, Another Man's Moccasins, The Dark Horse, Junkyard Dogs, Hell Is Empty, As The Crow Flies, A Serpents Tooth, Any Other Name and Dry Bones. Spirit of Steamboat, Wait For Signs and The Highwayman, also by Craig Johnson, contain a Walt Longmire Story. These books are perfectly paced and beautifully written must reads!

Best Sellers/Hardback: Since the release of All The Light We Cannot See, by Anthony Doerr, this book has resided on the Hardback Best Sellers list and with good reason! This is one of the most beautifully written books I have encountered. Two parallel stories, of Marie-Laure in France and Werner in Germany, are told in breathtaking imagery. All the threads of these two stories are woven together expertly in an epic tapestry that depicts the world's beauty, the horrors of war, the conditions of the human heart and the healing power of time. This is a truly compelling and uplifting novel!

Best Sellers/Trade Paperback: I read this book in hardback edition and waited for it to reach the Best Sellers list. The Little Paris Bookshop, by Nina George finally made the list as a trade paperback. This enchanting book details the peoples and landscapes of France, as well as the landscape of the heart and the healing properties of books. It is a poignant love story - of people, of places, of food and of books. It is the story of a bookseller in his floating bookstore in a barge on the Seine who chooses the exact book a reader needs. He unmoors his boat and departs on an astounding journey with a blocked author and an Italian chef. The ensuing adventures and eventual outcome are enchanting, heartwarming and heartbreaking.
